
Accessibility

Usability

User centred design

intro

Introduction

Course structure

- Accessibility
- Usability
- User Centred Design

Schedule

- Week 1, Accessibility

April 6

Accessibility seminar

Presentation and discussion of the accessibility workshop goals

April 7 and 8

Accessibility testing workshop

Schedule

- Week 2, Usability

April 13

Usability seminar

Presentation and discussion of the usability workshop goals

April 14 and 15

Usability testing workshop

Schedule

- Week 3, User centred design

April 21

Bringing accessibility and usability into user centred design
(based on independent reading assignments)

April 22

Presentation of combined preliminary workshop results by students

Study modes

- Attending the seminars and participating on workshops is recommended
Alternatives can be agreed upon on a case-by-case basis

Assessment

- Assessment is graded and has three components:
 - Accessibility testing workshop group report
 - 35% of final grade
 - Due by May 24
 - Usability testing workshop group report
 - 35% of final grade
 - Due by May 24
 - Four reading cards
 - At least one paper from each topic's independent reading list must be selected
 - 30% of final grade
 - Accessibility readings are due by April 12
 - Usability readings are due by April 19
 - User centred design readings are due by April 26
- All deliverables are to be submitted by e-mail to david.lamas@tlu.ee